For Public Waiver Precinct One.

John H. Franklin's name appears in the announcement column as a candidate for public waiver of this precinct. It is no exaggeration to say that Mr. Franklin has made one of the best public waivers ever elected to office in this county. The position he fills is a very trying one, but if there has been any complaint against him from any source he has never heard of it. He is uniformly courteous, rapid and accurate in his work, and best of all scrupulously honest. These are the qualifications that have enabled him to give such universal satisfaction, and which will enable him to continue to render the public most useful service if he is re-elected.

For County Commissioner District No. One.

County Commissioner John A. Stone announces as a candidate for re-election from Commissioners District No. One. There is possibly no man more familiar with the affairs of the county, or one more competent to render valuable service to the people of his district, as well as to the entire county, than Mr. Stone. He has every detail of the business that comes before the Commissioners' Court at ready command and is painstaking, prudent and conscientious in all his acts. He is very popular with his people, who appreciate his rugged honesty and fidelity to their interests. Commissioners may come and commissioners may go, but John A. Stone usually comes out as a Democratic primary with a rather satisfactory majority.

For Commissioner District No. Two.

Mr. Hugh Minton announces as a candidate for re-election as commissioner from district No. two. Mr. Minton is serving his first term, and while he came into the office a new man, he rapidly acquired a full knowledge of the affairs of the county, and from the beginning has been an active, conscientious and useful member of the court. He has looked carefully after the interests of his district and of the whole county. In other words as a commissioner he has "made good," and if there is any disposition among his people to make a change they have not given any evidence of it.

For County Judge.

It has been generally understood by the friends of George B. Hall that he would be a candidate for county judge, therefore his formal announcement for that office was to be expected. Mr. Hall received his literary education at Central College, Sulphur Springs, and at Henry College, Campbell. He has been a resident of Hunt county for seventeen years, twelve of which he has spent in Greenville. He was assistant county attorney under C. E. Mead, and at the expiration of Mr. Mead's term was elected county attorney. He served one term and declined to offer for re-election, regardless of the fact that he would have had no opposition. As a public prosecutor Mr. Hall was vigorous and aggressive and was always in the lead in enforcing the law, there being quite a crowd in this county during those days who were yet unconvinced that the laws of this country are supreme. Wherever he has lived George Hall has been admired for his rugged honesty and courage in the discharge of what he regarded as his duty. He is a lawyer of ability and if elected will make this county an efficient, just and honest judge.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY PROBLEM FOR WOMEN.

This involves a knowledge of hygiene and the chemistry of foods. The necessity for this knowledge and for that of proper exercise, ventilation, breathing, etc., is assuming vast proportions because of the confinement and nerve strain to which we are subjected by our modern mode of living. Dr. Kellogg of Battle Creek, Michigan, says that the life expectancy of man after forty years is rapidly decreasing and that we don't die of old age any more but kill ourselves. This reform in methods of living is a work that only the mothers can do as they prepare the meals and direct the movements of the children. Then think of the importance to the nation of preparing the mothers to do this. They must understand psychology and the growth of the child in order to direct its development wisely. They must know some of the fundamental things about nursery and the care and the feeding of young children. Many a child has died because of the ignorance of its mother, and an intelligent mother, too. Then a woman's taste should be cultivated that she may make her home beautiful and attractive; and much more might be mentioned that would help her to make home the happiest place on earth.

"Only one of a woman's needs is recognized by our system of schools and universities and that is her own culture and mental training. And while this is very important to herself and to the success of her calling, still she should have the information which her profession demands.

"How much of this can be attained through our system of education is yet to be worked out; it must be decided by the development of the idea throughout the nation. The beginning is made; and I believe the next generation will see a higher standard set for the education of women. When this is attained and they see it is suited to their needs, many more women will desire higher education. But whatever is done along this line, be it much or little, will help to correct an evil tendency of our present system which is to educate girls away from rather than towards matrimony and homemaking. It will give them more respect for the calling of women. It will result in fewer women competing with men in business, in the marriage of more women who are college graduates, and in more and happier homes. The importance to the nation of the marriage of her educated women will be noted when we consider that most of the great men of the world have been men who were mentally like their mothers. At present only a small part of women graduates marry. Most of them remain single and teach school and perhaps they are wise for they are following the profession for which they have been prepared. Ex-President Roosevelt says: 'No scheme of education, no social attitude can be right unless it is based fundamentally upon the recognition of seeing that the girl is trained to understand the supreme dignity and the supreme usefulness of motherhood.'

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indecate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"Favorite Prescription" is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice.

Some of the numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 31 one-cent stamps for cloth-bound copy.

They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. A Policeman's Testimony.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had no relief from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold by C. W. Gee.
